

Update from Bangladesh

Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS)

Workshop on Gender and Environment Data

- Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS) and UN Women are currently conducting a workshop on 'Capacity Building for Generating Gender Responsive Environmental Data in focusing to SDGs' from 27 to 29 September 2021
- Topics of the workshop include:
  - Training on the Metadata for generating gender responsive environmental data in accordance with SDGs to enhance the capacity for inter-ministerial /inter-agency officials;
  - Enhancing the Ability, Integrity, Co-operation, Coordination among the Officials of Ministries/ Divisions/ Departments / Organizations for generating and sharing environmental data as per metadata of SDG, SFDRR, UN-FDF
  - Facilitating Ministries/ Divisions/ Departments/ Organizations knowledge exchange with regard to collecting, analysing, reporting and sharing environmental data in support of integrated assessments and reporting on the SDGs;
  - Methodology and Metadata for SDG-priority based 26 Gender Inclusive Environmental indicator: Mechanisms in place to enhance Policy Coherence for sustainable development
  - Finalizing the questionnaire of "Environmental Protection Expenditure Survey 2021 & Solid Waste Management 2021' ; and
  - Establishing an Environmental Data Collecting and Sharing Platform at BBS.