

Tools: Inventory Template

The inventory Template provides a structure for systematically describing statistical activities related to the environment. It does so by listing key elements to be described. It is intended to support inventorying environment statistics at the national and sub-national level.

Pages

| Inventory Template                     | Presentations                                                                                   | Exercises |
|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Diagnostic Tool and Inventory Template | presentation.pptx                                                               | n/a       |
| Data Inventory Template V3             | Data Inventory - template.pdfData Inventory - template.docx | n/a       |