

Understanding the Role of Data in today's Digital Economy Talanoa

The Pacific Community's (SPC) Pacific Data Hub Community of Practice in collaboration with the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) invites you for a Pacific Talanoa* on the role of data in today's digital economy.

The meeting will be organized virtually on Friday 17th June 2022 at 9:30 AM to 11:30 AM (Fiji time)

Click on the registration link to sign-up for the event.

Click here for more information

Pacific Data Hub Pacific Community Communité du Pacifique UNITED NATIONS UNCTAD

JOIN US
FRIDAY 17TH JUNE 2022, 9.30AM - 11.30AM FIJI TIME
THE ROLE OF DATA IN TODAY'S DIGITAL ECONOMY

A Talanoa session hosted by the Pacific Data Hub and UNCTAD

SPEAKERS

MODERATOR

Linda Folia
Central Bank of Solomon Islands

Scarlett Fondeur
United Nations UNCTAD

Hamish Grant
Statistics New Zealand

Dr Andrea Giacomelli
Pacific Islands Forum Secretariat

Denis Grofils
Pacific Community (SPC)

Viraa Kantilal Lad
Bhikhabhai Group

David Wardell
Pacific Community (SPC)

PACIFIC ISLANDS FORUM SECRETARIAT Stats NZ Tataurangi Aotearoa Bhikha Bhai A PUKU INDIAN ENTERPRISE CENTRAL BANK OF SOLOMON ISLANDS

Note: The term 'Talanoa' is used in many parts of the Pacific to describe a process of inclusive and transparent dialogue. The Talanoa space is a place for sharing of ideas, knowledge and understanding.